Course Objectives/Competencies:

1. Learn the following requirements listed above.
2. Practice safety, sanitation and all N.C. State Board rules and regulations.
3. Learn and complete all objectives.

Attendance Policy/Tardiness/Make-Up Work:

You will be expected to attend all class sessions. Since the application of materials covered is required, failure to attend class is not advisable. If you must miss class because of the observance of a major holiday, please contact me one week in advance. If there is an emergency, and you cannot attend class, please contact me at the number listed above. Being late for class will not be tolerated, if you are more than five minutes late, you may not enter the classroom, if you continue to be late, after three tardies, or three absences, without calling you will be purged from the class roll. You must attend 80% of all classes to pass Cos. 111. No points will be taken for the first three absences. One point will be taken from your final grade for each absence thereafter. Three tardies equal one absence. Please note that the last day to unconditional withdraw is Sept. 25, and the last day to conditional withdraw is November 1, 2007.

Grading Criteria/Tests/Projects:

You will be expected to complete weekly chapter test & study guide. Attitude toward instructors, and your fellow students is extremely important to the future of your career. Therefore, you will be graded on all of the following. You will be expected to complete your study guide and have a weekly test on all assigned chapters. You will be given a mid-term and final examination. There will not be makeup exams on mid-terms and finals unless pre-approved by your instructor. You must take a make-up chapter tests on the first day you return to class. If

Grading Scale:

A = 94-100

B = 86-93

C = 79-85

D = 70-78

F = Failure, must repeat the class. North Carolina State Board has Cosmetic Arts rules and regulations that state, "If you do not successfully complete a portion of your curriculum, you must repeat that portion."

Inclement Weather Procedures:

Mayland Community College makes every effort to close school during inclement weather, however, conditions are vastly different throughout our service area. Students are responsible to use their own good judgment when attending classes in questionable weather conditions. Days missed for inclement weather will be made-up in Friday of the same week.

Academic Standards/Student Expectations/Ethics:

Academic Standards:

Disruptive or anti-social behavior including racial, ethnic and religious disparagement of any sort will not be tolerated in this class. Please be supportive of your classmates as they learn. We will strive to be a learning community in this class, and your personal support is vital. Cheating will not be tolerated. If you fail to meet these expectations, you are subject to one or more of the following: (1) No credit for the related assignment, (2) Removal from class. If you wish to contest any assertion of failure to meet academic standards, you are offered due process options listed in the student handbook.

Expectations:

1. First and foremost the student will take responsibility for learning in the classroom.

2. Read all assignments, and complete study guides for each chapter.
3. Be on time for class.
4. You must practice North Carolina State Board Rules and Regulations at all times, otherwise Mayland Community College can be fined from $50.00 up to $500.00. If you do not practice these rules and regulations you will be sent home for the day with no hours. If this should happen twice you will be sent home for a week with no hours. You are expected to take no more than two ten-minute breaks, one in the morning, and one in the afternoon. You will be allowed 30 minutes for lunch which must be taken in the department, according to State Board Rules and Regulations.
5. Please do not ask to bring your children to class. Children distract the entire class, especially their mother.
6. You will be expected to make-up a test on the first day you return to class, 10 points will automatically be deducted if you are not present for a test. In the event of an emergency, it will be left to the discretion of the instructor.
7. Loud and disruptive behavior will not be tolerated in department.
8. Absolutely no profanity used on campus.
9. You will be expected to exhibit exemplary professionalism both in appearance and behavior at all times.
