

The President shall establish procedures for all information and news events which are to be presented to the news media and general public, and shall designate a person or persons to be responsible for the preparation and dissemination of such materials.

Adopted: 7/01/2018
Reviewed: 1/29/2024